i was top gear s script editor for 13 years and all 22 series i basically used to check spelling and think of stupid gags about the stig i also got to hang around with jeremy clarkson richard hammond and james may it didn t feel like something you should get paid for from the disastrous pilot show of 2002 to the sudden and unexpected ending in 2015 working on top gear was quite a rollercoaster ride we crossed continents we made space ships we bobbed across the world's busiest shipping lane in a pick up truck we also got chased by an angry mob repeatedly sparked fury in newspapers and almost killed one of our presenters i realised that i had quite a few stories to tell from behind the scenes on the show i remembered whose daft idea it was to get a dog i recalled the willfully stupid way in which we decorated our horrible office i had a sudden flashback to the time a bolivian drug lord threatened to kill us i decided i should write down some of these stories so i have i hope you like them and now a quote from james may richard porter has asked me to write a quote for his new book about the ancient history of top gear but this is a ridiculous request how can one write a quote surely by definition a quote must be extracted from a greater body of writing for the purpose of illustrating or supporting a point in an unrelated work i cannot write a quote any more than i could film an out take porter like athens has lost his marbles
