design and the question of history is not a work of design history rather it is a mixture of mediation advocacy and polemic that takes seriously the directive force of design as an historical actor in and upon the world understanding design as a shaper of worlds within which the political ethical and historical character of human being is at stake this text demands radically transformed notions of both design and history above all the authors posit history as the generational site of the future blindness to history it is suggested blinds us both to possibility and to the foreclosure of possibilities enacted through our designing the text is not a resolved continuous work presented through one voice rather the three authors cut across each other presenting readers with the task of disclosing to themselves the commonalities repetitions and differences within the deployed arguments issues approaches and styles from which the text is constituted this is a work of friendship of solidarity in difference an act of cultural politics it invites the reader to take a position it seeks engagement over agreement
